

Please do not weaken the strenght of the Do Not Call list. It should continue stand for exactly what I and many others recently signed on to it for: the right to privacy in our own homes not to be invaded by telemarketers.